THE Sach. 139/1(1)
BALLANCE

OF THE Sanctuary:

OR,
SACHEVERELL
 Weigh'd, and found Light.

WHEREIN
 Is Weigh'd, Bonner and his Army, with Banners (Fire and Faggot) and Dr. Henry Sacheverell, and his Reformers, the Mobility, ——— and are found wanting.

AND ALSO
 The Holy Martyrs, CRANMER, LATIMER, RIDLY, PHILPOT, &c. And the Orthodox Elders, and Pious Divines, the Lord Bishop of SARUM, and the Reverend HOADLY, &c. Whom, being Weigh'd in the Ballance of the Sanctuary, are found too Heavy for Bonner, Sacheverell, and all Persecutors.

The Persecutors are all Blind, as appears by the Two Light Scales.

Love thy Neighbour as thy Self.

THE Ballance of the Sanctuary, is the Word of God contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments; and whosoever speaketh not according to this, or contrary thereto, hath no Title to the Promises of Life and Grace therein contained.

And this Word of God containeth all that Man is to believe concerning God; and what Duty God requireth of Man; and this most full, and perfectly.

The main End of this is to compare Bonner and his Army with Banners of Fire and Faggot, with Doctor Henry Sacheverell, and his &c.

Queen Mary and Bonner soon reduced the most glorious Reformation (of Edward VI.) back again to the idolatrous and apostate Purity of the Antichristian Church of Rome; Bonner one of her chief Slaughter-men; that Queen joyning the Civil sanction to (inforce) the most Fiery, Bloody, and Diabolical Sentences of her barbarous and persecuting Clergy.

Henry, trusting to his Mobility, and Friends abroad, in the Days of Queen Ann; who, altho' she hath given larger Testimony of her Care of, and Love to the Church and poor Clergy, than any that went before her; yet this Henry, (like Bloody Bonner) finding a Queen on the Throne, would he resolve to Mary's Purity and Bonner's Flames, and would revive that Fire in which so many holy Martyrs were devoured, and consumed to Ashes?

Yet Henry hath met with the Reverse of his Aim, and miss'd what Bonner obtained.

I say that Bonner and Henry are Express Images of one another's Persons, and Designs; but Henry miss'd to be equal with Bonner in the Execution of his End.

Bonner the Father, and Henry the Son, tim'd their most bloody Designs both in the Reigns of Queens, in which they agree to a Mite.

Secondly, Bonner and Henry tim'd their Designs on the Heels of the greatest Revolutions (as I may say) that hath befallen this Island: There was Henry VIII. his Revolution; Edward VI. his Glorious Reformation (or Revolution) Queen Mary on the Throne, and Bonner succeeded according to his Bloody Heart.

Henry, thou tim'd thy Design on the Heels of the Murther of a King, the Amazing Abdication of a King, the Island just recovered from Popery, and newly united a Queen also on the Throne.

Henry, thou sees now, that, notwithstanding that thou agrees partially in Design and Nature with Bonner; yet doth not Queen Ann agree so with Mary; but the Reverse being guided by the Spirit of God, and not by the Spirit of Belial as Mary was. Again, Henry tim'd his intended Tragical Revolution when when the old Disturber of Europe was suing for Peace: Mortification to thee, else thou wouldst not have opened thy Jaws to foment a Division of the United Island at home.

Again, thou tim'd thy intended Tragical Revolution as in Concert with Annibal Albani, who was about in Saxony and other Places, to promote the Interest of Antichrist, and to pervert the Interest of Protestantism. This Albani would have come to the Hague, and from thence to England; but (ah Mortification) the Praise-worthy Wisdom of the States General would not suffer him to enter their Territories; and so thou miss'd of an Interview, yet acteth for his great (but impious) Design.

Again, thou tim'd thy Tragical Design, when the Protestant Interest was declining on the Firma Terra, especially in the Empire, as on the Rhine, Saxony, and other Places that I am Assured to name! when Popish Churches were a putting up, and Protestant Churches a pulling down!

Henry tim'd his intended Tragical Revolution after the King of Sweden had been routed at Pultowa (and as one dead) thinking by this, the Protestant Interest (on the Firma Terra) irreparably lost: The Defeat of the King of Sweden, (who was the only Protestant Prince that appeared with his Sword in his Hand for the Protestant Interest on the Firma Terra) must needs animate thee; but tho' that King run the imminent Hazard of losing his own Dominions, fled to the Infidels for Safety, and hath been as one dead, yet I hope God will yet restore that most Protestant Prince (the Glory of Mankind) to the Comfort of his Friends (all Protestants) and to the Terror of Rome, and all his Enemies.

Remembring an Address of the Honourable House of Commons to the Queen, praying her Majesty not to sorrow so much for the Death of her unparallel'd Royal Consort, as to forget the Thoughts of a second Marriage; I protest, I know no Prince on Earth a fit Match for such a Princess, unless the King of Sweden: But this would be Mortification to Henry; for that Prince hath appeared abroad with his Sword in his Hand against thy Party as the Ornament of all the Daughters of Adam; Queen Ann hath appear'd at home with her Scepter in her Hand, and her Crown on her Head, against thee, Henry, and against thy Mob.

But to return; Henry, thou tim'd thy Design, as in Concert with the Duke of Wolfenbittel, who exchanged Christ for Antichrist, to the Scandal of his Name, House and Pettit Country.

Henry,

Henry, Tim'd his Tragical intended Revolution, in the days of the Reign of that Infancy of Princes, King Augustus, who hath trod under Foot, and gone over the Belly of all that was reckoned Sacred among Men; as if he had a Commission to encourage Runagado's, Perjurers, and to make Precedents for Violators of Promises, Oaths, and Truce-Breakers!

Again, Thou Tim'd thy Revolution, when the K. of D. was become suspicious, having represented (in a Popish Court) a Protestant Prince by a Romish Ambassador, having committed the Command of his Blinded Army, to the Care of a Bloody Papist, (if our News be true.)

Lastly, Henry, (and which is more than all I have said before) thou Tim'd thy intended Tragical Revolution, in a Time wherein thou was repulsed. Men, Devils, and Anti-Christ, never before mist the Execution of their Designs, under so favourable a Gale, having Wind and Weather from abroad; but thou wast be-neipt at Home. God, in his Divine Goodness, hath Overthrown thy Crafty and Diabolic design. And now we know thee.

Bonner and Henry, partly agree in Language, all tending to Persecution; yet Henry, in his Darby-Sermon, and in his Fifth of November, 1729. Out-brawls Bonner and all his Crew; as if Henry's Tongue had been dipt in the Stygian Lake, he roreth forth Bonner, Fire and Faggot, Hell and Damnation, and that For Eternity, without Reprieve, or Reserve; which Bonner seemingly did not without Reserve; for he told the Hereticks that they might be Saved, on Condition, &c. but Henry gives no Conditions, — shews no Mercy!

Henry, differs from Bonner, only in Degrees; for Henry is 44 Degrees more Violent, Unmerciful, and Fiery Fierce, against the Souls of Men, then Bonner was. For Bonner, Gardner, &c. Antichristian Locusts; proceeded against the Hereticks, Cranmer, Latimer, Ridley, Philpot, &c. with some shew of Tenderness; for those Persecutors had the Hereticks, (so call'd, but Holy Martyrs) before them, did Examine them, Admonish 'em, let them make a Defense, &c. but our Christian Spirited Henry, is worse; for he Condemns all he is pleased to Honour with the Title of False Brethren, without a Hearing, or Admonition. Not so much as allowing the Justice that the Pagan Governour gave to St. Paul, before he sent him to Cesar's Tribunal. Tho' most of these his False Brethren, hold the same Faith St. Paul, and the Holy Martyrs, Cranmer, Latimer, &c. did. And if Henry had succeeded in his Infernal

Infernal Design, would have seen many of his False Brethren Burn, as Bonner's Hereticks did; before they would have denyed the Faith of Christ.

But all Praises to Eternal God, all Thanks to our Mild and Heavenly Minded Queen, and Commendation to the Parliament, that hath put a Stop and Check to such a Diabolical Design.

To shew further Henry's malevolent Malignity and Fury, is worse than Bonnors, open and read the Book of Martyrs, Vol. 3. in Queen Mary's Days; and Henry's Darby, and Saint Pauls 5th of November Sermon, and compare Bonner the Father, and Henry the Son; also compare Henry's False Brethren, to Bonner's Hereticks; and the Faith of the one to the Faith of the other; and compare all to the Ballance of the Sanctuary, and discern whose Son Henry is: Whether a Son after the Image and Likeness of Bonner, or a Son after the Image and Likeness of the Church of England?

A Son of the Church of England he is not; for the Church of England is full of Love, Charity, Tenderneſs, Meekneſs, Peace, &c. Loveth her very Enemies, and prayeth for them. Thou art not a Son of this Church, and unless in Rome, I know not where to Church thee?

Book of Martyrs, Vol. 3. Col. 2. Bonner to Heretick Philpot. If thou wert Absolved of thine Excommunication, wouldst thou come to Mass or no?

Henry, in St. Pauls, Nov. 5. in his Sermon pag. 22. neither offers Absolution, requires Repentance, nor alloweth of Pardon to his False Brethren; but in the Lake that Burneth with Fire and Brimstone, with the Devil and his Angels. Here doth Henry Lodge his False Brethren: Bonner was satisfied with Burning the Bodies of his Hereticks; but Henry, (a more Mighty Man,) to shew his Blind Burning, and Diabolical Zeal; Burns the Immortal Part, (Judge what he would do with the Body, were it in his Power) at his Pleasure making Bonfires of the Souls of Men in Hell.

Philpot, the Heretick, to Bonner the Catholick, Mine own Conscience, I know it, and God there ought to sit, and no Man else. And pag. 497. col. 2. Bishop of Gloucester to Ridley, For God's Love, Mr. Ridley, Stand not Singular, be not Wise in yu own Conceit.

Henry, without Admonition, Prayer, or Exhortation, let our Ecclesiastical Pastors thunder out their Anathema's, and let let any power on Earth dare reverse a Sentence Ratified in Heaven.

Thy method, and reasons (Henry) for thundering out of Anathema's, are no more dreadful to thy False Brethren, than the Popes and Bonnors Anathema's were Terrible to Philpot, the Heretick. Heavenly Philpot, knew God was only to sit in his Conscience; and this, thy False Brethren know also.

Pag. 419. col. 2. Bishop of Normich to Roger. Coo. Wilt thou (Coo,) Obey the Kings Laws?

Coo. As far as they agree with the Word of God, I will Obey them.

Bishop. Whether the Kings Commands agree with the Word of God or ~~know~~; we are bound to Obey them, if the King were an Infidel.

This Bishop, 'tis not much whether he agrees with Gods Word or no, for he agrees with Henry in his Passive Obedience and Non-Resistance, without reserve. Passive Obedience and Non-Resistance, without Reserve, is only due to God. The Holy Martyrs, and thy False Brethren, do believe as Christ Taught them: Render unto God the things that are Gods, and unto Cesar, the things that are Cesars; then it is plain, Cesar must not Rob God, nor the Subject Rob Cesar.

The Holy Martyrs prayed to God for the Conversion of their Burning, Bloody and Diabolical Persecutors (as thy False Brethren prays to God of thy Conversion) yet thy Burning Charity sends 'em all (Tag, Rag, and Long Tail) to Hell without Reserve, having first given them the Title of false Brethren; and this with a Juryless Judge! by a puff of thy Mouth, and so they are damn'd! Ah Diabolic, the Voice of a God and not of a Man! Judgment belongs to God alone—Henry — in thy passing Sentence of Damination, on all thou art pleased to dignify with the Title of False Brethren, thou dost Usurp the Throne of God! yet acteth as with a full Commission from Rome.

Let us weigh Things in the Ballance of the Sanctuary, and examine how thou agreeest with the Word of God.

Vengeance is mine saith God. The Son of God saith, Judge not, that ye be not Judged. Thou Henry, has run Counter to this, by Invading the Throne of the Living God, the Judge of all the Earth; and, (as it were) Usurpeth that Power that intirely belongs to the Eternal Deity. Hath tript up the Heels of

of the Son of Man (as unfit to execute that Power given him of the Father, viz. all Judgment) and has kick'd him off that Throne of Judgment, as a Judge unfit to give the final Sentence of, Come ye Blessed ; Go ye Cursed.

The Lord of the Sanctuary saith, with what Measure ye met, it shall be measured to you again ; Ah Henry, where wilt thou hide thy self. Again, blessed are the Meek, — blessed are the Merciful, for they shall obtain Mercy. God have Mercy on thee (Henry,) it is dark on thy Side ; thou, who void of all Appearance of Mercy the 5th of November, didst doom and damn Souls, and threw them headlong into the Infernal Lake, Hell.

Must the 5th of November never be a Day for Mercy ; must it be always a Day fill'd full of Diabolical Blasts. About 104 Year past, the Popish horrid Gun-powder-plot, (had not God prevented it) would have given such a Blast as the Island should have Trembled at ; and on the 5th of November last there was such a Blast in St. Paul's, that nothing but Hell could equal.

Again, Blessed are the Peace-makers, — Blessed are ye when Men shall revile you, and say all manner of Evil against you. — Thus they persecuted the Prophets, &c. Henry, it is true, the Persecutors used most Hellish Railings, Ragings and Revilings, against the Saints whom they persecuted ; but thou, as one Clothed with a double Portion of the Spirit of the Accuser of the Brethren, Exceedest them all. — But,

To proceed, Timothy was to instruct in Meekness such as opposed. — St. Paul to the Colossians saith, Forbear one another, Forgive one another — even as Christ forgave you — to the Philippians ; Let your Moderation be known unto all Men, (a Canting Term) the Lord is at Hand.

Again, a Bishop must not be a Brawler. — To Titus speak Evil of no Man, — be gentle, shew all Meekness ; Canting Terms, quoth Henry !

St. Paul saith in another Place, it is Christ that justifieth, who is he that condemneth ? — Answer Henry ! 1 Cor. 4. 4, 5. He that judgeth me is the Lord ; Judge nothing before the Time, until the Lord come. I say then, If

Henry

Henry be Judge, his Judgment and Sentence of Damnation pronounced on the Souls for which Christ Died, is Just and Right : But if the Lord Jesus be the Judge, then (Henry) thy Sentencing Men, yea, the Souls of Men, to the Torments of Hell Flames, is unjust, Self-Condemning, (if not Self Damning) for who is this Amalakite, or Uncircumcised Philistine, that Usurpeth the Throne of the Living God ?

St. James saith, there is one — who is able to Save, and able to Destroy : Who art thou that Judgest another ?

Henry, I believe thou art neither able to Save a Soul, nor able to Destroy, or Condemn a Soul, unless thy own ; therefore thou art not to Judge.

Thus Reader, thou seest that God, the Holy Scriptures, the Squadrons of Holy Martyrs, are United Friends ; and as it were, Brethren Combin'd against Henry. And I presume, his own Conscience flies in his Face sometimes, &c.

Henry, I am no Quaker, for I can Swear, and that with more Justice and Authority, than thou hast to Damn Souls. And here I do Swear by Almighty God, that I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, to be True ; and that they contain a Full and perfect Rule, both for Faith and Manners. That they were given by God, and that they contain the Whole Duty of Man ; from which nothing is to be taken away, nor any thing added thereto. That they contain all that Man is to believe concerning God, and what Duty God requireth of Man. I Swear also, that I do believe God is the only Judge of the Quick, and of the Dead. I Swear also, that I believe, thou (Henry) canst neither Damn One Soul, nor Save Two.

I do believe that thy Derby-Sermon, and that of the Fifth of November, are not Written by that Spirit of God, that breathes in the Writings of the Holy Prophets and Apostles ; and Christian Pastors Writings, &c. That such Sermons will not bring a Soul over from Satan to God ; but the reverse (were it possible) because because so fraught with the Spirit of Belial, breathing forth in every Paragraph.

Neither do I believe that thy Master the Pope, (to thy Auditory in St. Pauls;) would have assum'd the Latitute thou didst: For tho' he Claims such a Power over Souls, yet in a smother Stile; for thou, like a Devil without a Mask, appear'd Naked, to frighten Men to a double distance from thee.

Henry, Consider that Persecution is of the Devil, and not of God. Nor ever was practis'd by the True Church of Christ. The Church prays for her Enemies, and leaves them to God, who in his own time can Work, &c.

Henry, Consider the Latter End of Persecutors; how, even in this Life, the Vengeance of God seized most of those Bloody Men. Have a care least thy Latter End be like theirs. Also consider whether thou, like an Uncircumcised Philistine, hast not Damn'd and defied the Armies of the Living God.

I come to shew to the World, that Henry is the Arch-Phanatic indeed, and that he is a Notorious Scripture Plunderer; which proves he is the Arch-Phanatick. And where he cannot (will not) speak according to the Scriptures, (Henry) he will make the Scripture speak according to his Sanctified Cant and Villany.

First, As for his Schismatical Presbyters: Read 1 Tim. 4. 14. St. Paul saith to Timothy, Neglect not the Gift that is in thee, which was given thee by Prophecy, and the Laying on of Hands of the Presbytery.

In his Fifth of Novembers Sermon, pag. 20. Henry saith, When Elisha the Great Prophet of God was furrounded with an Host of Enemies — his Blinded Servant beheld not the Peril his Master was in, till his Eyes were opened by Miracle.

Here our Scripture Plunderer, the Arch-Phanatick, Annihilates the Text; and out of the Ruins thereof, formeth a Proof to his Doctrine, quite contrary to the Text. See 2 Kings 6. 15, 16, 17. verse 15. And when the Servant of the Man of God was risen early and gone forth, Behold an Host compassed the City, both with Horses and Chariots : And his Servant said unto him, Alas my Master how shall we do ? ver. 16. and he answered, Fear not, for they that be with us, are more than they that be with them. Ver. 17. And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray thee open his Eyes, that he may see, and the Lord opened the Eyes of the Young Man and he saw. And behold the Mountain was full of Horses and Chariots of Fire round about Elisha.

Here it is plain, that Elisha's Servant beheld the Peril his Master was in, before his Eyes were opened by Miracle ; which overturns all that Henry Built upon this Foundation. But the Servant saw not his Masters Life-Guards, and the Safety he was in, till his Eyes were opened by Miracle.

This Scripture Plunderer, (yea Worrier) a strong Phanatick ; will, in an Age when (to his Mortification) we have Liberty to read, and search the Scriptures, invert them, Annihilate their true Sense, and put on the same a Glaring False Gloss ! Wise and Excellent (in Henry's esteem) was that Man who first invented — Ignorance for the Mother of Devotion, and prohibited the Laity, to read the Scriptures ; least the Sanctified Villany of Baals Priests, and Scripture Plundering Phanaticks should be known.

Page 23. 5th of November Sermon, Henry said, We should be Terrible like an Army of Banners. But Solomon in his Song, chap. 6. 4, 10. saith, Terrible as an Army with Banners. Here this Scripture Plunderer puts of for with ; and like for as ; and I shall beg leave to put o for a, and then the Sentence will sound according as Henry hath design'd it : And it is thus — We should be Terrible like an Army of Bonner's. That is, (in plain English) Fire and Faggot, the Terrible Banners of Bonners Army : Thus far is the Preachers true meaning.

In his 24th page, he quotes Isa. 51. 18. and here he plunders the Text of — none, and puts in — few ; and robs the Text of — any, placing many, — in the room thereof : Which plundering, quite changeth, or rather annihilates the meaning.

A Scheme so Monstrous, so Romantic, and Absurd, that it is

is hard to say, whether it had more of Villany, Phanaaticism, or Folly in it.

What he says of the Learned SARUM, that Elder, or Pastor, or Bishop, which you will, I shall pass; for he is of Age to answer for himself.

But what thou saist of King William, that he Solemnly disclaimed Resistance in his Declaration, is all Counter. Did the Prince of Orange bring over his Troops to Obey, or to Resist, the late King James, of Mournful Memory? Common Reason says, that the Prince brought over his Troops to Resist, and not to Obey that King. Who, (as 'tis said) was about to take away the Liberties and Laws of the Nation: Yet I think (but with all Submission) this might have been done without an Army of Foreigners. But God hath an Hand in all the Transactions of Men. However, I protest I cannot see, (unless my Eyes be opened by Miracle) how the Princes Declaration any way favours our Doctor, about what he was to maintain; but the quite contrary appears: But he that will Plunder the Scripture, what History will abide him! The Prince disclaims a Conquest of the Nation, but this is nothing to Henry's Purpose.

Now Henry, Thou that art the perfect Image of Bonner, Thou that form'd thy Design under so many favourable Circumstances from abroad, Thou, so like a Persecutor, and unlike a Christian; Thou who hast no Mercy on Souls; Thou that Plunders the Scriptures, and Annihilates its Meaning; Thou that hast from the Pulpit scattered abroad so much Scandalous and Belial Language, to Infect the Nation; Thou that has been so eminently repulsed in thy Design of Persecution. I say God hath Overthrown thy Great and Impious Attempt. The Councils of God stand sure, but the Wicked shall fall into the Pit that they made for others.

Henry, has done one good thing by Chance, which is as followeth: It is not long since the French King intended to set the Pretender on the Throne of Scotland. On this, the Truly Loyal, Illustrious and Noble Lord, his Grace D— of H—, was highly suspected suspected (by some) of Disaffection to the Queen and Government. But his Grace, when it was Voted, (if I might say so) by the Lords, Is Doctor Henry Sacheverell Guilty of, &c. Or not Guilty, &c. It appears by a Printed List of the Names of the Lords, that D—— H—— was under the Title of Not Guilty; and so in the Doctor's Interest. And this very thing has restored that Duke to an higher Esteem than he was in before, with the few of that side that then appeared steady. But as the other side did not much suspect him then, so they have the same even and Good Respect for his Grace, that they always had.

But to return, I long to see thee (Henry) whether thou still retains thy Human Shape, after having divested and unrob'd thy Self of so many Knick Knacks of the Christian Shape. But these little Canting things, such as Moderation, Charity, Gentleness, Meekness, Brotherly Love, &c. were but a troublesome Luggage for one of thy Kidney.

Henry, I must tell thee, that since thy Sermons came first abroad of late, every part of the Country, (as infected from Hell) Rings aloud with Diabolical Oaths, Execrable Cursings, and damnable Language, imitating Henry in the Pulpit.

Henry, I come now to take my Leave of thee for this time, desiring thee to consider who it was that took away King Charles I. his Head from his Body; a Deed so inhumane, Barbarous and Hellish, that it cannot be forgot. I say, art thou of the Offspring of these Monstruous Villains? I know not, but it is so said. And this I will boldly say, that of the Common and Inferiour People, And Some Clergy-Men, (that now sets up for the Church of England and Sacheverell) that now are our Zealots smitten with Blindness, and would now be our Reformers. — Take 'em, I say, and put them in a Bag and shake them, and turn them out again by Fives; and I will pick three out of every Five who are the Spawn and Offspring of the Murderers of King Charles I. And these are our High, Hot,

Hot, and Holy Zealots, and Fiery Reformers.: These are indeed Miscreants, Begot in Rebellion; Born, as well as Begotten in Sedition; and the Nurseries of Faction; like Solomon's Grave, the Barren Womb, the Thirsty Earth, and Fire that saith not it is enough, Prov. 30. 18. Unfit Men to be trusted, before the Blood and Murther done by their Fathers and Grandfathers, be forgotten. Men that have only changed Sides, but not Natures.

Concerning

Subjection and Obedience.

The Queen is the only Proprietor of the Subjects Subjection and Obedience in all things Lawful; and by Law may Command the Subject, and all he hath, his Conscience only excepted; for that belongeth to God, and the Subject ought to make Conscience of rendering Cesar his due.

I humbly think, that the Sovereign is to Frame his Government according to that Law by which he ascended the Throne, and by which he holds the Reins of Government, whether it be immediately from Heaven, or of the People. He is to provide Good Laws where they are not, and to Cancel Bad Laws where they are.

If the Sovereign breaks his Engagements to the People, and they loose his; the Muscovite General Czeremetof saith, ' Its a Noted Maxim, where the Protection of a Sovereign ceases, the Allegiance of the Subject ceases at the same time; since the Obligation is Mutual. See the Monthly Mercury, for February 1710. page 45. But this Muscovite Maxim (I think) is very Pernicious, Unchristian and Scandalous.

I shall conclude with a Solemn Prayer for Henry.

A Almighty God, Lord of all Mercy, who knoweth the Hearts of all Men, have mercy I beseech thee, on this Man (Henry) and Convert him to thy Self, and to the the Love of the Brethren ; and, Good God, do so also by all that are out of the Way of the Gospel of Peace : Shew them ~~their~~ their Sin, awaken their Conscience, and give them thy Holy Spirit of Free Grace and Love : And as thou turned the Heart of St. Paul, turn the Heart of Henry also to thy self ; seeing it is Ignorance and Blind Zeal that guides him ; as it did the Holy Apostle Paul.

But, and if it be so (O Lord) that thou wilt not turn his Heart to thy Self, and to the Love of Brethren ; I beseech thee do with him, as is usually done with Tan-ners Fierce-Mastives ; Muzzle him up, and Chain him fast, lest he Tare the Flesh, and Shed the Blood of the Sons and Daughters of Zion. Hear, and Answer O Lord, for the Sake of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of Fallen Mankind. Amen.

I am a well Wisher of thy Soul.
